What a difference a year can make. Last year we were preparing for our last Christmas in Ecuador and for all the goodbyes that were soon to be upon us. Now, we watch as the seasons change and look back at the year gone by. It is definitely one we wouldn't want to repeat, but also a year that taught us so much. We learned in tangible ways that our years in Ecuador had meaning and purpose in the lives of those we worked to serve and also those we worked alongside.

As we look forward to a "stateside" Christmas, we are reminded of the richness that comes with knowing the One for whom the season exists. He has been so kind to us in the midst of change and the heartache of leaving Ecuador. We know that He will continue to guide us in the coming years as we continue as MAF missionaries, working in recruiting and training at our headquarters. We're excited too to see how He uses us and are thankful for your continued partnership with us.

We pray that this Christmas will be one of joy for you and your loved ones, and may He lead you to a new and deeper understanding of His love. We ask that you pray with us for those who are separated from His love by extreme obstacles and that the Holy Spirit will empower MAF to overcome them in Jesus' name.

Merry Christmas!
